PART 6 - Confirmation, Authorization and Signature

6

I certify that the information that I have provided on this claim form is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge. I certify that all goods and services being claimed have been received by me, my spouse and/or my dependents; and that my spouse and/or dependents are eligible for benefits coverage under the terms of my plan.

The submission of fraudulent claims is a criminal offence. Canada Life takes the submission of false or misrepresented claims seriously. I understand and acknowledge that:

- Canada Life may reassess my claim(s) being submitted at any time including but not limited to, any circumstance where the information on a receipt differs from my claim(s) being made;
- my submission of any claim(s) investigated and determined by Canada Life to be false or misrepresented will be reported, together with any relevant information including evidence resulting from the investigation, to my plan sponsor and/or my employer, including its agents, and the appropriate law enforcement agency;
- Canada Life will pursue the recovery of any money that has been obtained improperly through false or incorrect claim submission.

What could happen if I submit a false or misrepresented claim?

- You could lose your benefits. In addition to having to pay the money back, you could lose your benefits completely
- You could go to jail. Being convicted of fraud results in a criminal record – making it difficult to get a job or travel
- You could lose your job. After all, stealing from your employer is a serious offence, and many employers have a zero-tolerance policy for benefits fraud. Being fired for benefits fraud could also impact your chances of being employed in the future.

At Canada Life, we recognize and respect the importance of privacy. Personal information that we collect will be used for the purposes of assessing your claim and administering the group benefits plan. I authorize Canada Life, any healthcare or dentalcare provider, my plan administrator, other insurance or reinsurance companies, administrators of government benefits or other benefits programs, other organizations or service providers working with Canada Life located within or outside Canada, to exchange personal information when necessary for purposes of the administration of my benefits. I understand that personal information may be subject to disclosure to those authorized under applicable law within or outside Canada.

I also consent to the use of my personal information for Canada Life and its affiliates' internal data management and analytics purposes.

For a copy of our Privacy Guidelines, or if you have questions about our personal information policies and practices (including with respect to service providers), write to Canada Life's Chief Compliance Officer or refer to www.canadalife.com.
